VETERANS HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

Discuss Removal of Confederate Monument—Big Yield of Wheat.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Lancaster, Va., July 8.—The annual summer reunion of the Lawson-Ball Camp of Confederate Veterans, was held here yesterday. Commander B. H. B. Hubbard, of the camp, presiding, the session was occupied with routine business and with the consideration of the proposition to remove the Confederate monument from its present position on the village common to the court-house square. It was finally determined that the camp has no authority in the matter, but it is understood that steps will be taken to have the proper authorities give consent for its removal. After dinner the camp reassembled, and adopted suitable memorials prepared by a committee, of which the Rev. Wayland F. Dumas was chairman. Captain William Henderson and William T. Marsh, two members of the camp recently deceased, were eulogized. A choir sang a number of Confederate war songs, greatly to the delight of the veterans, and Frank P. Brent delivered a historical address, in the course of which he paid a warm and feeling tribute to the late Senator John Warwick Daniel for his worth as a man, soldier, statesman and statesman. The suggestion of Judge John C. Ewell, of Lancaster, former commander of Lawson-Ball Camp, and now grand commander of the Grand Camp of Virginia, a Woman's Auxiliary was formed in connection with the camp.

A striking celestial phenomenon was witnessed here about noon yesterday, in the shape of a halo around the sun. The circle was about twelve or fifteen degrees in diameter, the surface presenting a purplish black appearance, with the circumference fringed with the colors of the rainbow. The phenomenon was visible for several hours, and was viewed by many persons, some of whom were taking photographs. A similar halo was visible here some time last April, and was followed by a spell of cold weather. These halos are said to be due to the presence of ice crystals in the upper regions of the earth's atmosphere.

Max Waddey, the colored youth, who was shot in the leg last week by Frank Corbin, another colored youth, in the Corotoman region, and whose leg had to be amputated by reason of blood poisoning, has since died. Corbin, who has been committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury, declares that the shooting was purely accidental, and that he did not know at the time that the gun was loaded. Those who witnessed the shooting testified that it was accidental, and there seems to be no evidence against Corbin, except the testimony of one of his white neighbors, who says that he is a dangerous character, and that he has a strong propensity for carrying concealed weapons, some of which have been taken from him on previous occasions.

Justice Clifton, in consideration of the circumstances and cut of abundant caution, thought it best to send the jury to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Farmers in this section have about finished harvesting, and the wheat, the yield and quality being the best for many years. P. A. Delano, a farmer living near Wicomico Church, in Northampton county, is reported as having made about 250 bushels of excellent wheat on sixteen acres of land.

Spot, trout and other fine fish are becoming plentiful in the lower waters of the Rappahannock River, and its tributaries, and fishermen are beginning to have lively sport catching them with hook and line.

MYSTIC SHRINERS VISIT CAPE HENRY

Weary Pilgrims Sent Over Hot Sands and Khedive Temple Instituted.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Norfolk, Va., July 8.—The Mystic Shriner to-day had a gala time at Cape Henry, sending a number of weary pilgrims over the hot sands of that section, and, in addition, Khedive Temple, instituted here, a year ago under a probationary charter, was duly initiated with a regular charter.

The functions of the day began in the early afternoon with a parade of the Arab Patrol of the Temple, headed by a band, and with several hundred of the members in line. Special cars carried the Temple members, smiling in anticipation of the good time, to the scene of festivities.

The ceremonies of formally putting the Temple under a regular charter were performed by Past Imperial Potentate Harrison Dingman, of Washington, D. C., assisted by the following Shriner from that city: F. E. Gibson, Samuel Hart, Alexander McKenzie, William B. Gude, A. Gude, S. Fred Fahn, F. W. Miller, G. W. Engle, Thomas P. Morgan, Edward Heidingsfelder and Charles S. Stephens.

A shore dinner and a number of speeches by the visitors and local Shriner were features of the afternoon. There was plenty to eat, to drink, and fun galore, with the novices shuffling through the real desert sands in that section. The official divan is as follows:

George H. Lewis, illustrious potentate; J. T. Deal, chief rabban; John N. Sebell, assistant rabban; Joseph H. Saunders, H. P. and prophet; J. V. Davis, oriental guide; J. B. Moss, guide, and William W. Galt, recorder.

Thirty subjects are divided into 119 courses, taught by experts from the university and from elsewhere.

At noon to-day a party of eighty teachers left in a special car over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway for a visit to Luray Caverns. C. G. Prosper, chairman of the South Carolina delegation, is in charge of the party. A stop was made at Blue City for dinner, the special reaching Luray about 6 o'clock this evening. Four hours were spent in the cave to-night. The teachers will spend the night in Luray, leaving for Charlottesville at 10:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SHOT BY HIS OWN PISTOL.

In Accidental Discharge J. R. Windham is Fatally Injured.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Raleigh, N. C., July 8.—J. R. Windham, foreman of the Seaboard Air Line extra force of men working near Cary, this county, is lingering between life and death from the effects of a pistol shot wound through his body, received from his own revolver accidentally. He knocked his coat off a nail in his car. A .45-caliber revolver was in the pocket. It fired, with the muzzle pointing so that the ball entered his body just above the right hip, so that it plowed its way through the body and came out near the right shoulder with force enough to bury itself in the top of the ear.
